OUTSIDERS A PROBLEM AT BRANT BEACH

Discussion among the Board of Selectmen, members of the Brant Beach Association and Police Lt. James Santos resulted in a decision to place a sign on the 30 foot stretch of town owned beach reading "Town of Mattapoisett Residents Only". All agreed that outsiders are the major problem.

Harvey J. Blanchette, president of the association; Jeremiah Foster, Charles Kelley and Leonard Francoeur presented the boa board with their reasons why they had asked for a no-parking-tow away sign on the beach road.

Foster read a list of complaints citing open drinking, pot smoking, broken glass and other undesirable conduct on the beach by persons other than Mattapoisett residents.

Blanchette said, "There is a safety problem when there are cars parked three-deep. If there is a fire, drowning or other emergency there is going to be chaos." He admitted there has been a good response by the police department when they have called with a problem.

Selectmen will check Brant Beach Avenue to determine if "No Parking" signs can be placed on the right side, because the road dips on the left side of the road.

Lt. Santos, in explaining his viewpoint, said, "No matter whether it's private or public land, the police department has the power to subdue noise or a disturbance.. My interpretation of the parking situation is that the Brant Beach Avenue road is a public way, that the Corps of Engineers control the jetty and that no parking signs will have to be approved by the State Department of Public Works."

Santos also noted that if a property owner has a complaint they should call the police department which will respond. "I understand your problem. We cannot patrol the area 24 hours a day, but we will have two-car coverage."

In other business, Selectmen:

Received a proposal and draft agreement to perform the industrial site analysis for the High-Tech area. The Town of Mattapoisett's share in this cost will be $3,000, contingent on federal and state approval. The state Department of Public Work's share is $2,000, and SRPEDD's Municipal Assistance share, $500.

Clarence Fountain of the Industrial Committee will meet with Selectmen Tuesday to review this agreement prior to the board's signature.

TO PAY FOR ANTIQUE DEALERS LICENSE

Selectmen received a letter from Ruth and Allen Elsbree, Studio Shop, indicating that after careful deliberation they have decided to pay for the Antique Dealers License, but will do so under protest.

The Elsbrees protest the fact that many collectors remain unrecognized; they protest the fact that they NEVER sell in Mattapoisett and they protest the renewable fee. The Elsbrees said they hoped the board would give careful consideration to their concern.

An enthusiastic letter was received from Robert F. Davis of Stoney Hill Road, thanking the town Selectmen and Manuel R. Nunes, Highway Surveyor, for the completion of the resurfacing of Acushnet Road. Davis noted that the worst part of the road was resurfaced a year ago with available funds, with the remainder recently completed. A copy of the letter will be sent to Nunes.

Received a memo from SRPEDD regarding the Emergency Jobs Appropriations Bill. Grants will be awarded beginning in September, in amounts ranging from $100,000 to $700,000. Mattapoisett is an eligible community. Proposals may be submitted in one of the four areas: public services, public works, rehabilitation of private property and critical community need.

Selectmen have asked Carol Adams, executive secretary, to check into the possibility of using some of the funds to restore the Grange Building.

Received a request from Plymouth County to participate in the joint purchase Fuel

WANTS TO PROHIBIT SELF-SERVICE GAS STATIONS

Paul Bradley, Fire Chief, asked whether the town could pass a by-law prohibiting self-service gas stations. His reasoning is that they create more problems than they are worth.

Carol Adams, executive secretary, informed the board that the state regulation permits a by-law providing no applications for a self-service station are pending. It was held for further investigation.

LIGHTING AT WHARF

As a temporary solution to the lack of lighting on the town wharf, Selectmen agreed to check into this aspect -- and then discuss a permanent solution for possible inclusion in the annual town warrant.

Representatives of the firm will be starting the field inspection of the project in the Seasonal and Beach Areas of the town. As the representatives move to other sections of town, we will list those areas in the newspaper.

Representatives will have identification signed by the Assessors. Their car make and registration will be on file at the Assessors' Office and Police Station. The Board of Assessors asks that you please allow the individual to inspect the interior and measure the exterior of your property.

As well as property description, the representatives will be asking the actual or approximate age of the property, confirming recent sales information and recent renovation and remodeling costs.

The Board of Assessors asks that the residents of the community cooperate fully with the company representatives so that this program can be completed as quickly and efficiently as possible.

If you have any questions please call the Assessors' Office at 758-6708.

lived in Massachusetts for over 70 years, and her interest and participation in the arts has lasted for just as many years. She has seen and experienced all the excitement and changes that have occurred in Europe and particularly America since WWI, including the new ideas and energies of the post-Impressionist era. As a member of the New York Art Students' League she became friends with artists such as Jackson Pollock and came into contact with Georgia O'Keefe and her husband Stieglitz.

She also taught art at Brooks School in North Andover for 30 years.

Marriage and four children did not stop her painting, thanks to a supportive husband. All her children are involved in the arts in various ways. Roberta is an art teacher at Governor Dummer School in Byfield; George is a professor of French at the University of Rhode Island; Sam is a stage and screen actor; and Ellen Bartow, who lives in central Oregon, is a photographer and writer and was a member of the Oregon Arts Commission for several years. Ellen remembers car trips as a child complete with watercolor boxes, papers and dripping bottles of water -- family outings in a "portable studio" -- and above all her mother's zest and enthusiasm for all aspects of life. Whatever the weather or temperature she had to swim if there was an ocean nearby, and to this day she is an enthusiastic sailor.

Alica Atkinson has had numerous solo shows as well as representation in major group exhibitions in such diverse places as Paris, France and Billings, Montana. She is listed in Who's Who in American Art, Who's Who in the East, and the American Women's Who Who. She has paintings in the permanent collections of public and private museums and galleries and in many private and corporate collections.

A fascinating collection of WASHBOARDS, IRONS, TRIVETS, and HOT WATER BOTTLES is on display for the month of August at the Mattapoisett Historical Museum.

This collection is the gift of Mr. George H. Kiesewetter of Newton Center and Mattapoisett. the Society is most grateful for his gift to the Museum.

When you view this collection you will be quick to agree that there isn't another assortment of these items that is as complete as this one. These items span one hundred years. The iron collection includes one that is Chinese and is fired by charcoal. The housewife of today certainly has an easy job of it with the steam and spray irons and wash and wear fabrics! Come and see what you missed by not being born 100 years ago!

The Mattapoisett Historical Museum is on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets in Mattapoisett; the hours are 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

BIRTHDAY PRESENTS ARE IN ORDER!

It is not a secret any more .. the MATTAPOISETT HISTORICAL SOCIETY is 25 years old! Let's brag about it.

The Society and Museum have grown over the years, starting with just the Christian Church building and some Mattapoisett antiquities. Then money was raised and used to build the Carriage House.

Now these quarters have been outgrown and there is a need for another display room, storage space, and office. It is the Building Committee's aim to raise $25,000 for this purpose. Have you given?

A BIRTHDAY PRESENT to the BUILDING FUND would be TAX DEDUCTIBLE and much appreciated. Checks may be made payable to BUILDING FUND of the M.H.S. and sent to Meredith Suzan, treasurer, Main Street, Mattapoisett, MA. 02739. THANK YOU ... THANK YOU!

Although her design is more than 200 years old, the Peapod still ranks as one of the finest small boats available for sailing, recreational rowing, and as a yacht tender. Letter to The Editor

I wish to congratulate you on your recent editorial in connection with the mild action of Congress in the area of its own morality. As usual, you are right on the mark!

Your remarks have prompted me to think about what has happened in our country to bring about the attitudes and acts that we are belatedly beginning to deplore; what philosophy or creed has undermined our national character? It seems to have emanated from the secular humanism that has been taking over in our society, in a gradual way, during this century. It has been made to sound so good, so appealing, with its self-realization promotion, its "me" philosophy, its everyman a king popularism, its insistence that everyone set his own individual standard of behavior and morality, regardless of the Judeo-Christian ethic.

We have four and one-half billion people in our world. If we follow the secular humanists' leadership we will come up with four and one-half billion different standards, and the world chaos that we are now approaching!

One of the results of our liberal swing to the left is our watered-down patriotism and love of country. As it happened, on Flag Day in June, I drove around our fair town of Mattapoisett and counted the number of American Flags that I found displayed. We have in the neighborhood of thirteen hundred families in town; I counted twenty flags! I am not indicting Mattapoisett alone, as I sure a similar situation existed in surrounding towns, and nationwide. I have even found it difficult to get that grand old hymn, "America", played on the local church carillon.

Sixty-five years ago, in grammar school, I learned a section of Sir Walter Scott's "Lay of the Last Minstrel". I can repeat it today. I recommend it to all of us - quote - "Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, this is my own, my native land? If such there breathes, go mark him well; for him no minstrel raptures swell; high though his titles, proud his name, boundless his wealth as wish can claim; despite these titles, power and pelf, the wretch concentered all in self, living, shall forfeit fair renown, and doubly dying shall go down to the vile dust from whence he sprung, unwept, unhonored and unsung!"

Is anything like that ever taught in our schools today? No, the secular humanists have seen to that!

Centre Street Festival

The 8th Annual Centre Street Summer Festival, organized by the New Bedford Preservation Society with the help of the City of New Bedford and WHALE (the Waterfront Historic Area League) will take place in New Bedford on August 13th and 14th. Centre Street, once the heart of the whaling industry, comes alive again for 2 days, maintaining New Bedford's proud heritage.

Over 75 professional craftspeople and artists from all over the country, including Ohio and Florida and the New England states, will set up shop along the cobblestoned streets of New Bedford's Historic District. Crafts will include toys, house portraits, stained glass, woodworking (including reproduction furniture), slates, musical instruments, weavings, jewelry, leather, pottery, silk screens and many more. The Preservation Society will also have its third annual Pairpoint cup plate for sale.

If you should be hungry while you visit the festival, there will be a delicious tempting assortment of ethnic foods such as Lebanese grinders, linguica, chourico, French meat pies, plus all time favorites like pizza, hot dogs, clam chowder, fresh fruit, popcorn and homemade baked goods from which to choose.

While you stroll the streets browsing through the crafts you will be entertained by a variety of groups from all over the New England area, including Bluegrass singers, a sixteen piece fife and drum band, folk singers, jazz performers, and drama groups.

The festival, located behind the New Bedford Whaling Museum and adjacent to the New Bedford Glass Museum and waterfront, will run from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Satur-

Abandoned Accounts

STATE TREASURER CRANE TO RETURN UNCLAIMED MONIES

Massachusetts General Law Chapter 200A is known as the Unclaimed Money Law. Enacted in 1907, it can be viewed as the state's first consumer protection law. This law seeks to protect individuals by assuring that unclaimed bank accounts, uncashed payroll checks, uncashed dividends and insurance proceeds which have been inactive for at least five years are returned to their rightful owners or legal heirs.

State Treasurer Robert Q. Crane is charged with administering this law. One of his responsibilities is to force banks and other institutions to report unclaimed funds to the state. Treasurer Crane had to sue Boston Edison, the First National Bank of Boston and recently John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company to make them turn over unclaimed monies. He then must try to locate the missing owners to return their monies to them.

In August Treasurer Crane will release the names of more than 25,000 Massachusetts residents who are the owners of unclaimed money. Lists of the owners' names will appear in newspapers across the state beginning August 1, 1983. Last year Treasurer Crane returned more than $18 million dollars to rightful owners under the Massachusetts Abandoned Property Law.

Mackinaw Music Show

The Mackinaw Music Show will be performing at the Wareham High School Football Field on Sunday, August 7th, beginning at 1 p.m.

The professional Music Company's appearance is being sponsored by the Wareham (district) Fire Department's "Rescue and Emergency Equipment Fund".

According to Lt. Berry Cattabriga, a co-chairman, the event will bring good wholesome family entertainment to the Wareham area.

The Mackinaw Music Show has a cast of six who present a family-oriented entertainment program. Comedy, impressions, crazy animal characters and a variety of musical selections -- country, golden oldies, gospel, pop tunes and close harmony - provide 90 minutes of good, clean family entertainment.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from many Fire Department members or at the gate. For further information contact the Wareham Fire Department at 295-2325.

The proceeds from the show will be used by the Fire Department to upgrade existing equipment and purchase new rescue equipment, and also to purchase Training Aids.

Ashumet Holly Reservation

CELEBRATES LOTUS FESTIVAL

The Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ashumet Holly Reservation in East Falmouth will hold its annual "Oriental Lotus Festival" on Wednesday, August 10th (rain date, August 11th) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This year's festival features Indian classical dance performed by two gifted artists, Dulal Talukdar and Sharron Weiner. Ornately costumed and rhythmically exciting, these performances promise to be an exotic treat for the audience. Also featured this year are Bonsai exhibits, oriental arts and crafts and the legendary Japanese Tea Cermony.

The festival coincides with the peak blooming time of the oriental lotus flowers which cover approximately 2 acres of Ashumet's pond. The oriental lotus boasts leaves which rise three feet above the water and large pink blossoms which stand even higher. Guided walks to view the lotus pond and the herb garden will begin at 10 a.m. the day of the festival.

The Lotus Festival is sponsored by the Friends of Ashumet and proceeds are part of yearly fund-raising efforts to maintain the sanctuary. Admission is 3.00 for non-members, 2.00 for members and 75 cents for children 11 and under. Refreshments will be available throughout the day.

Training Consortium

SMU OFFERS TRAINING TO AREA BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

The Center for Research and Business Activity at Southeastern Massachusetts University is presently gearing up for its third year of the Training Consortium, a human resources development program designed especially to fit the training needs of area business and industry.

For the past two years, the Center, which is an extension of the College of Business and Industry, has offered to area firms the opportunity to participate in a series of workshops aimed at enhancing the skills of middle and upper level management.

Companies purchase a fixed number of "seats" which may be used at their discretion throughout the training year. "It is unique in that it is the participating member firms who determine the workshops that will be offered. This makes for a cost-effective way to obtain tailor-made training," said Bradley Almeida, Center coordinator.

Memberships are now being accepted for the next training season which begins in October. For more information about the Training Consortium call Mr. Almeida at 994-9401.

Research Service

The Waterfront Historic Area League announced that it is offering for the first time historical and architectural research to owners of homes and commercial buildings in the Greater New Bedford area. WHALE's reports will be prepared by its new Research Historian, Peggi Medeiros, and will answer basic questions for homeowners such as: How old is my house? Who built it? Who lived there? Is the house a Federal? Greek Revival? Gothic Revival? Queen Anne?

Many houses in the New Bedford area were modified by later owners to remain in fashion during the late nineteenth century which was noted for its wide diversity of architectural styles. Since a house which

The Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 provides owners of income producing properties a 25% tax credit for certified rehabilitation of historic residential and non-residential buildings. Many owners in the New Bedford area would like to take advantage of the credit and WHALE will prepare the necessary Part I and Part II Certification forms which must be submitted to establish the historic significance of a building and detail the proposed rehabilitation work. WHALE will also prepare National Register nominations for developers, since buildings qualifying for the tax credit must be either in a Historic District or listed individually on the National Register of Historic Places.

WHALE is also prepared for a negotiated fee to aid local historic district commissions with National Register nominations and survey work leading to the establishment of National Register districts.

Testimonial Dinner for Dr. Walker

A testimonial dinner on August 8 to honor Dr. Donald E. Walker, president of Southeastern Massachusetts University since 1972, will cap a month-long drive to raise $50,000 for an SMU Walker Merit Scholarship.

Walker resigned in June to take a position in August as superintendent of the Grossmont Community College District in San Diego, California. He will be succeeded by Dr. William C. Wild, Jr. who will serve as SMU's third president for one year until a permanent president, selected through a nationwide search-and-screen process, takes over.

Governor and Mrs. Michael S. Dukakis will head a list of distinguished community and political figures attending the banquet that will include the chancellor of higher education, John B. Duff, members of the board of regents of higher education, Lt. Gov. John Kerry, and other state leaders and cabinet secretaries.

The merit scholarship, in the names of Dr. Donald E. Walker and Ann L. Walker, will provide recognition for SMU students who have achieved outstanding intellectual or academic accomplishments.

Any member of the public can make a donation by sending a check made out to SMU Walker Scholarship Committee, SMU, Old Westport Road, North Dartmouth, MA. 02747.

The dinner is at the Venus de Milo Restaurant in Swansea at 7:30 p.m; cocktails

Sewing for Profit Guild

EXCESS SUPPLY SALE

Plymouth County Extension Service in cooperation with the Sewing for Profit Guild is sponsoring an Excess Supply sale on Saturday, August 13th, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Pembroke Community Center (formerly the Center School) on Route 14, Pembroke Center, reports Ann Marie Holsinger, Extension Home Economist.

Members of the Sewing for Profit Guild, Artisans of Plymouth County and others will be selling quality sewing and craft remnants and supplies. It's a perfect opportunity to stock up on fabric, notions, yarns, used equipment and other craft supplies for back-to-school sewing and Fall projects at bargain prices. Admission is free.

Throughout the day there will be mini-sewing demonstrations on stay stitching, bound buttonholes, dealing with ease, machine embroidery, etc.; a fashion show of original designs made in the 1982 flat pattern designing classes; and a problem solving table with Ms. Holsinger to answer your specific questions on sewing. Two boxes of supplies will be raffled during the day. A food booth will be provided by Capra Kids Dairy Goat 4-H Club of Halifax.

The Sewing for Profit Guild is an educational guild for professional sewers. The guild's purpose is to offer an exchange forum for people who sew for others -- custom sewing, alterations, and mending. The guild was organized by Ann Marie Holsinger in order that seamstresses could improve their business and sewing skills.

For more information on either the Excess Supply sale or the Sewing for Profit Guild, contact Miss Holsinger at the Plymouth County Extension Service; phone numbers, 293-3541, 447-5946 or 746-0053.

Freezing Tips

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Cutting food costs and the concern for wholesomeness of food have led many people to return to producing part of their own food supply. Whether you elect to grow your own produce, or buy at harvest time from farmer's markets, consumer cooperatives, or wholesale produce markets, when you have a chance to get fresh fruits and vegetables at a good price, buy extras for the freezer.

Product managers at General Electric advise keeping a well-stocked freezer to cut down on shopping trips and to keep your appliance running most efficiently. Running a nearly empty freezer wastes precarious energy.

Here are some tips for enjoying the goodness of nature's harvest all year-round using your home freezer.

To prepare fruits for freezing, wash and peel or cut up as you would for serving. Add sugar or syrup to brighten flavor and help preserve texture after thawing.

Vegetables need to be heated briefly in rapidly boiling water to inactivate ripening enzymes, which can change color, flavor, texture and nutritive value. This process is known as "blanching" and times vary depending upon the size and type of the vegetable.

To prepare vegetables for freezing, fill a large kettle or steamer with a gallon of water per one or two pounds of vegetables. Place vegetables in cheese cloth bag, and plunge bag into boiling water. Start timing immediately and keep heat high. Chill in ice cold water and drain well. Pack into freezer containers leaving one-half inch head space, or use plastic bags with the air pressed out; seal, label, and freeze.

In general, most foods can be stored for a year at 0 degrees F (-18 degrees C) if properly prepared, packaged and frozen.

Packaging is an important part of preparing foods for freezing. If frozen foods are not well protected during storage they will lose moisture. This causes changes in appearance called freezer burn and speeds up physical and chemical changes in the product. There are many kinds of moisture-vapor-proof wrappings and packages for fruits and vegetables; waxed, cylinder-shaped containers, cylindrical cans with snap-on covers, heavy-duty aluminum foil containers and waxed, top-opening cartons lined with plastic film.

For specific techniques and up-to-date food storage times obtain the United States Department of Agriculture Home and Garden Bulletin No. 69.

Following these tips will help you do the job economically and keep fresh frozen foods at the peak of perfection.

Bequest to Tobey Hospital

Tobey Hospital recently was the recipient of a sizable bequest from Mr. Eugene S. Clark, Jr. of Sandwich.

Mr. Clark was born in Sandwich in 1899. He was a cousin of Fletcher Clark, Jr. who was originally from Sandwich and a participating member of The Bar since 1915. He was educated at Sandwich High School and became an expert on whales among other things. He had an extensive collection of scrimshaw that he willed to the National Seashore Park. He was a Commodore of the Sea Scouts and an authority on lobster growth maintaining a laboratory in his house in connection with these studies. On occasion he brought the benefit of his knowledge of shellfish to the children at the Perkins Institute for the Blind.

He was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Quartermaster Corps stationed at Camp Edwards in World War II and fitted out various battalions staging out of that camp. He enjoyed being known as Colonel and was known as an interested, public spirited Cape Codder.

ARE YOUR EYES DOING THEIR JOB?
No matter what the job, you can't work at your best if you don't see your best. And nearly every job places some visual stress on your eyes.
How long has it been since you've made certain your eyes are healthy? If it has been some time, you ought to call for an eye examination today.
